Colonial Legacies, Contemporary Inequities: Critical Approaches to Global Health

A one-day hybrid symposium supported by the UCL Institute of Advanced Studies, UCL Grand Challenges, and UCL Social and Historical Sciences.

UCL Institute of Advanced Studies/Online, June 14, 2023.

Register: criticalglobalhealth.eventbrite.co.uk

10-10.15am	Registration, coffee/tea (15m)
10.15-10.30am	Welcome/introduction (15m) - Prof Sahra Gibbon, UCL Anthropology. - Catriona Gold, UCL Geography.
10.30-11.35am	Opening keynote (1h05m) Africa and the critical health humanities: lessons in autonomy, sovereignty and voice. Speaker: Dr Chisomo Kalinga, Chancellor's Fellow at the University of Edinburgh. Chair: Prof Megan Vaughan, UCL Institute of Advanced Studies.
11.35-45am	Break (10m)
11.45am-1pm	Revealing inequalities: an interdisciplinary paper session (1h15m) Chair: Prof Sahra Gibbon, UCL Anthropology. Extracting and composing embodied inequalities through a public health system: thinking about bodies and territories with Indigenous women in Brazil Dr Maria Paula Prates, UCL Anthropology. Revealing Hidden Global Politics: Cholangiocarcinoma, Raw Fish Consumption, and Health Inequalities in Northeast Thailand Filis Liu, UCL Department of Anthropology. Ageing in the Heat: The Overlooked Impact of Climate Change on the Health of Older People in China Jinghan Li and Dan Liang, UCL Geography. Unravelling the Complexities of Harmful Marketing to Children: A Critical Political Economy Perspective Srivatsan Rajagopalan and Maria Soraghan, UCL Institute for Global Health. Public Sector Digital Transformation as a Determinant of Health: A look at the World Bank's Digital Identity for Development (ID4D) global policy initiative. Nai Lee Kalema, UCL Institute for Innovation and Public Purpose, The Bartlett.
1-1.45pm	Lunch (45m) – outdoors, on north side of Quad

1.45-2.50pm	Mental health & reflexivity: an interdisciplinary paper session (1h05m) Chair: Catriona Gold, UCL Geography. Mental Health Rehabilitation in Morocco: An Explorative Study Sophia El Ouazzani, UCL Psychiatry and UCL Institute for Global Health. Experiences of and Interventions for Adult Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse in South Asia: A Systematic Review and Narrative Synthesis Shivangi Talwar, UCL Psychiatry (presenting), Carlos Osorio, UCL Psychiatry; Rajesh Sagar, All India Institute of Medical Sciences; Rebecca Appleton, NIHR Mental Health Policy Research Unit; and Jo Billings, UCL Psychiatry. The export of mental illness: categories that fail people. Ananya Choyal, UCL Anthropology. From Abstraction to Action: Establishing a Collaborative Reflexivity Praxis for Transformative Global Health Research Rosamund Greiner (presenting), Hattie Lowe (presenting), Faith Miller, Callie Daniels-Howell and Alma Ionescu, UCL Institute for Global Health.
2.50-3pm	Break (10m)
3-4.05pm	Afternoon keynote (1h05m) Feeding the end of the world: unhealthy ecologies, precarious labor, and COVID-19 in the meat industry in Southern Brazil. Speaker: Dr Jean Segata, Associate Professor at the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul. Chair: Prof Sahra Gibbon, UCL Anthropology.
4.05-4.15pm	Break (10m)
4.15-5pm	Concluding roundtable (45m) - Prof Sushrut Jadhav (UCL Psychiatry). - Prof Ed Fottrell (UCL Institute for Global Health). - Dr Chisomo Kalinga (University of Edinburgh). - Dr Jean Segata (Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul). - Prof Sahra Gibbon (UCL Anthropology). Chair: Dr Jennie Gamlin (UCL Institute for Global Health).
5-5.15pm	Final remarks (15m) - Prof Megan Vaughan, UCL Institute of Advanced Studies. - Dr James Paskins, UCL Grand Challenges.
5.15-6pm	Reception (45m) – outdoors, on north side of Quad