

NHS Pensions - Application to contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme under a Section 7(2) Direction (SD65)

Important notes for the Direction Employer

Access to the NHS Pension Scheme is only available to an employee who fully satisfies the criteria detailed in a section 7(2) direction ('the direction document').

An eligible employee must make an application to contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme within 3 months of the date of commencement of the relevant employment. As such this form should be given to the eligible employee at the earliest opportunity.

The employee may only commence contributions in accordance with the effective date as detailed in the direction document.

Important notes for the Employee

If your employment fully satisfies the criteria detailed in a section 7(2) direction ('the direction document') you may make an application to contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme.

This form is your application to pay contributions into the NHS Pension Scheme.

You must return the completed form to your employer within 3 months of commencing employment. If your application is late it may have to be turned down.

Notes for Medical School Employment Only

You may only apply to contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme if your employment is in that part of the Medical School in which instruction is given to Medical or Dental students only, or in a post graduate institute for medical or dental research.

You cannot contribute to the NHS Pension Scheme if you have been transferred from the NHS to the Medical School under a NHS Re-organisation initiative.
