

CCS Visiting Fellowship (Non-Stipendiary) Application Form

The UCL Centre for Capitalism Studies (CCS) is a world-leading centre for critical interdisciplinary research into the past, present, and future of capitalism. It conducts research on how markets, finance and economic institutions shape our everyday life, structure societies’ capacity to change, and are contested and remade across time and space.

We invite researchers working on the study of capitalism from economic, historical, sociological, geographical, or anthropological perspectives to apply for the CCS Visiting Fellowship (Non-Stipendiary).

Name
Institutional affiliation
Current position
Duration of stay at IAS
Preferred start* and end dates
Sources of funding during your time at the IAS
Title of project
Names and contact details of two referees, one of whom should preferably be from UCL	1.
	2.

* Please allow at least three months between the application deadline and the beginning of the Fellowship.

Research proposal:

Summary of work that you intend to do as a CCS Visiting Fellow and how it fits in with your larger research project and indicate its potential interdisciplinary reach (max. 1 page).

Why would you like to be at the CCS/UCL?

If there are particular individuals that you hope to work with, please specify here (max. 150 words).

How do you envisage your work fitting with CCS themes/areas? (max. 100 words)

Will you be collecting data during your visit? Yes/No (Delete as appropriate)

If yes, has ethical approval been granted? Yes/No (Delete as appropriate)

If yes, from whom?

What the CCS offers you:

- Desk space
- Membership of the CCS Team, the IAS community and Common Ground
- Access to UCL resources, including seminars, events and the library.
- Full participation in IAS and CCS events.
- An opportunity to work closely with the CCS Leadership Team on themes relating to our core research questions covering the past, present and future of capitalism.
- Access to an interdisciplinary intellectual community through the CCS network of affiliate members, scholars and artists; and CCS-related events and discussions at UCL and beyond.

What the CCS expects from you:

- Participate in CCS-generated research-based activities
- Attend weekly IAS Residential Seminars whenever possible
- Delivery of one Talking Points Seminar
- Have involvement in selected CCS events/platforms and participate in CCS intellectual community and wider community.
- Generate ideas and events for scheduling at CCS.
- Present their own research (as appropriate) in IAS forums
- Acknowledge the CCS and IAS in any publications which result from research done during the period of the appointment

For further information on the UCL Centre for Capitalism Studies please see the centre website. For questions relating to the application process email Lucy Stagg at lucy.stagg@ucl.ac.uk. For content-related questions email the CCS Director at a.komporozos@ucl.ac.uk.

We are only able to offer a limited number of positions for visiting researchers each year.

Please e-mail this form to lucy.stagg@ucl.ac.uk