

UCL Medical School
MBBS Hardship Funds & Bursaries

Dr Christopher Whiteside Fund – trips home/travel to visit family

The Dr Christopher Whiteside Fund was founded in 1975 by Mr and Mrs J. R. Whiteside in memory of their son, a student at University College School of Medicine from 1970-1973.

- Awards from the Dr Christopher Whiteside Fund may be made as and when needed.
- Awards are made by the Medical School on the recommendation of the UCLMS Divisional Tutor.
- Awards are made to assist undergraduate medical students in Years 4-6 of the MBBS programme to make exceptional additional journeys home or, in very exceptional circumstances, to contribute to their expenses on short holidays.
- Awards made to any one student in any period of six months may be £50 or a larger amount at the discretion of the Divisional Tutor.
- Applications may be made at any time through the MBBS Bursaries Moodle Site.