PLIN Modules – Module Information Sheet (2023/24)

1. General Information

- Module Code: PLIN0085

- Title: Apprenticeship in Linguistics

- Credits: 15

- Module Tutor: Jamie White; Contact: j.c.white@ucl.ac.uk

- Module Available at the following levels:

  - Level 6 UG

- Module Description:

This module allows students to get first-hand experience conducting research and working as part of a research team, under the direct supervision of a staff member. To enrol in the module, students must find a staff member to supervise them. Student will then work as research assistants on one or more of the staff member's active research projects, and will meet regularly with the supervisor and (if relevant) the supervisor's lab group or research team. At the end of the module, students will write a report based on the research project.

This module may be taken by special arrangement with James White (j.c.white@ucl.ac.uk). This module may only be added to your module registration selection after discussion and formal approval has taken place with Jamie White.

- Prerequisites: Depends on project.

- Timetable: Varies.

- Summary: Varies.

- Information for students on other programmes and Affiliate/intercollegiate students:

  This module is only available for Linguistics undergraduate students.

2. Teaching

- Teaching methods and tutorial/lab arrangements: Varies.

- Communication: Varies.

- Workload: Approximately 10 hours per week. Breakdown varies.

- Core Texts: Varies.

3. Assessment

- Level 6

Mode of Assessment	Weight	Format
Essay	100%	2500-word essay.

Table 1. Assessment Formats and Weightings

- Other assessment information: You must also complete a Research Activity Journal. This component is compulsory, but worth 0% of the mark. The format will vary, to be discussed with your supervisor.

4. Types of Feedback

Types of feedback will vary depending on your supervisor and the nature of the project you are working on as part of the apprenticeship.