

UCL Personalised Medicine Domain - Early Careers Network Launch

Monday 7 November 2016

12.00-1.00pm	Registration and lunch
1.00-1.15pm	Welcome and introduction Ms Jo Churchill MP, All Party Parliamentary Group for Personalised Medicine
1.15-2.30pm	Session one Chair: Dr Amy Webster, UCL Personalised Medicine Domain Early Careers Network Committee Professor Sir Munir Pirmohamed, Wolfson Centre for Personalised Medicine, University of Liverpool,  Pharmacogenomics and its Role in Precision Medicine Early Career Researcher - Dr Daniel Kelberman, UCL GOS Institute of Child Health  Multi-omic Approaches towards Personalised Medicine for Rare Diseases Early Career Researcher - Dr Simona Balestrini, UCL Institute of Neurology.  Genotype Phenotype Correlation in Paroxysmal Neurological Disorders
2.30-3.00pm	Networking break
3.00-4.30pm	Session two Chair: Dr Chiara Bacchelli, ICH Genetics &amp; Genomic Medicine Prog, UCL GOS Institute of Child Health Professor Stephan Beck, Research Department of Cancer Biology, UCL Cancer Institute  Open Access MEDICAL Genomics Early Career Researcher - Dr Marnix Jansen, UCL Cancer Institute  Stem Cell Evolution During Oesophageal Cancer Progression In Three Dimensions Early Career Researcher - Dr Rose Gilbert, UCL Institute of Ophthalmology  Stratifying Management for Sight-threatening Non-Infectious Uveitis Professor Sue Hill OBE NHS Chief Scientific Officer for England, 100,000 Genomes Project
4.30-4.35pm	Closing remarks Professor Philip Beales, UCL Personalised Medicine Domain
4.35-5.30pm	Networking drinks reception

Many thanks to our sponsors for their generous support:

